When Mrs. Wilson learned the truth, she was nearly prostrated with charge of being an escape. Wilson is being held at the Detention Hospital until arrangements are made for his return to the institution.

Last Saturday night, Wilson escaped from the asylum. Arriving in San Francisco, he telephoned to the home of his wife's brother, in Los Angeles, asking his wife to come to tenements and largely populated by foreign-born citizens.

From the moment his carriage entered the district he received an ovation. Never before has a President of the United States visited this little-known part of New York, and never before has a fraction of the thousands that cheered him seen a nation's ruler. Electric lights winked and blinked characteristic legends, gaudy bunting fluttered in the wind, and the great East Side showed its enthusiasm in every imaginable way. East Houston street and adjoining thoroughfares in all directions were blocked in by as cosmopolitan a crowd as could be gathered in any city in the world. The crowds were in the best of humor, and no disorder or resistance occurred.

Every entrance to a residence or store within the police line was gnarded by an officer, while on house-tops opposite the cafés stood policemen to keep these vantage points clear of any evil-disposed person. The tenants of the near-by houses had been warned in the afternoon by the police to get home before the lines were drawn, and most of them appeared to have done so.

The President was punctual to his schedule. He was due at 7:30 o'clock, and five minutes before that time cheering began on avenue B. The police line came to attention, and a hand stationed near the café struck by The Star Spangled Banner," but after the opening bar, not a horn could be heard. The wave of cheering swept shead of the Presidential party and grew into a roar such as East Side tenement walls never chood before. The window order was forgotten. The sashes went up simultaneously.

The district through which the President drove and in which he dined is not the safest in the great city, and the police took no chances. So stringent were the precautions that not a fashlight photograph was allowed to be taken, and uniformed palice, plain clothes men and detectives fairly swarmed inside and outside of "Little Hungary." They were stationed on the roofs and fire secapes in the neighborhood, and for two blocks on either side of East Housion street a cordon of police cut off the crowds.

The night was almost the coldest the spech from the throne to the assemble spirits of the crowd. Before dust, the East Side streets began to pour forth their quota bound toward "Little Hungary." and these were swelled by sightseers from all over the city, the latter, perhaps, more anxions to see the East Side on a rale night than to catch a glimpe of the President. The House of Commons assembled for business at 4 o'clock. Joseph Chamberlain, Sir Henry Campbell-Bannerman, A. J. Baifour and other favorites were warmly greeted by their respective supporters. The new members who took the oath included Harry Marks, who succeeds the late James Lowther, whose death occurred September 12 last, as representative of the Isle of Thanet, but as he had not brought the official return of his election Mr. Marks had to leave the house until he obtained it. At the resumption of business in the House of Lords, Lord Chancellor Saisbury read the King's speech and the Marquis of Winchester, Conservative, moved the address in reply.

Poreign Secretary Lanadowne expressed his sorrow and concern at the continuance of the war in the Far East and said that should an opportunity for bringing it to a close present itself the government would avail itself thereof with alacrity, but an attempt at intervention now would mean retarding the very object desired.

Great Britain had endeavored, not unsuccessfully, to maintain the strictest neutrality. In regard to the most difficult and embarrassing question of contraband, the government, Lord Lanadowne continued, had upheld the wise and time-honored policy of securing the narrowest possible restrictions of the definition of contraband articles.

It was satisfactory to have been able to arrive at a reasonable modus vivendi. Since July not a single British veviel had been interfered with except where clearly a blockade runner. Referring to the North Sea incident, Lord Lansdowne said that once, and only once, were they near being drawn into the vortex of war. He need hardly say it arose in connection with the North Sea incident, to which he referred only because he desired to acknowledge the kindly remarks of Earl Spencer, who had congratulated the government upon its conduct of the negotiations following the Dogger Bank affair.

had been of no little value in settling many sifficulties.

In referring to South Africa, the Foreign Secretary said that the British government was prepared to give the Transvaai first, and then the other colonies, not self-government, but representative institutions.

Touching upon the Thibet expedition, Lord Lansdowne said that the attitude of the government toward Thibet had been absolutely consistent. Col. Younghusband, the British political agent who headed the mission, had transgressed his instructions when he arranged for British forces to remain in the Chumbi district for seventy-dive years, and this action had been repudiated by His Majesty's government.

The Foreign Secretary declined to enter into an explanation of the negotiations with Afghanistan. He said it would not be desirable at the present time to lay the papers before the House.

THE FIRST DIVISION.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

LONDON, Feb. 15.—In the House of Commons, W. A. Mount, Conservative, and Samuel Roberts, Conservative, seconded the address in reply to the King's speech.

The first division approaching party lines occurred in the House of Commons when Mr. Dalziel, Liberal, moved that the House censure Lord Arlington for breach of privilege by his action in the North Dorset election. Premier Balfour said nothing could be gained by continuing the discussion and moved the previous question, which was carried.

Sir Henry Campbell-Bannerman, the Liberal leader in the House, speaking on Mr. Mount's motion, bitterly assailed the government, which, he said, was evading the fiscal question, as shown by the failure of a moven. He said that the opposition would shortly endeavor to secure a straight answer from Premier Balfour showing whether or not he was in agreement with Joseph Chamberlain's proposals. He continued almost up to 7:30 p.m., when Sir Edgar Vincent, Conservative, took up the debate and was speaking when the House suspended its sitting.

The first hour and half of the night session was taken up with desultory speeches in the debate upon the address in reply to the speech from the throne. Premier Balfour rose at 10:39 o'clock to reply to Sir Henry Campbell-Bannerman.

Mr. Balfour justified the government's action in Thibet, saying it was the ministry's earmest desire to maintain the friendliest relations with African, and repeated Lord.

He touched on Chinese labor in South Africa, and repeated Lord Lansdowne's pronouncement with regard to the future of the South African colonies. He also defended the sugar convention.

Mr. Balfour protested against bringing the fiscal question before this Parliament, and said it was entirely irrelevant. He was unable, he said, to make his position cleared than he had already done. He taunted the opposition on the existing confusion concerning its future programme.

STOCKTON CHANNEL SHOAL TO BE CLEARED OUT AT ONCE.
[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS-P.M.]

STOCKTON, Feb. 14.-The shoal in Stockton Channel at the mouth of Mormon Channel is to be cleared out at once. Bids for removing 150,000 cubic yards of sand were opened in the office of Col. W. H. Heuer in San Francisco today and the report reached here that the Golden Gate Dredging and Reclamation Company and the North American Dredging Company presented the lowest estimates and both would put machines to work at once.

both would put machines to work at once.

The city of Stockton has been making an effort to keep the main channel open, but the sand settled to such an extent that one dredger could not keep a passageway for steamboats open. Today it was impossible for the river steamers to cross and tonight the freight placed on barges cannot be towed over the sandbar, as the cable of the dredger working on the shoal parted and allowed the bucket to drop in the deepest water and until it is recovered the boats cannot get away.

among whom is J. Pierpont Morgan. Following the conference, from which representatives of the firemen left apparently in an angry frame of mind, the board of directors remained in season for some time.

Morgan was first to leave the meeting. He refused to make any statement as to whether or not a settlement had been reached. "If any information is to be given out, you must get it from the officials of the road," he said.

President Mellen said that he had no statement to make, except that no satisfactory afrangement had been made. T. Shea, Second Vice-Grand Master of the firemen, said: "We have submitted a statement to the directors stating our position clearly. It is for the directors now to decide. It may be that there will be no further meeting necessary to settle the matter."

While the conference was taking place, more than eight hundred men were within call ready to take the places of the firemen if a strike were declared.

The grievance of the firemen is not one against the Brotherhood of Locomotive Enginers. The contention of the firemen's association is that all engineers who are members of their union should remain under the jurisdiction of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen.

The paper is chiefly interesting in showing the acuteness of the controversy at one period. Lord Lansdowne, in a dispatch to dir Charles Hardinge, the British Ambassador at St. Petersburg, August 10, describes the situation eleing from Russia's 'unprecedented attitude' with reference to contraband as one of the ulmost gravity, and said that unless this condition was ended without delay Great British would be constrained to take such precautions as she thought desirable to protect her commerce.

UNCOILING OF RED TAPE.

Old Los Angeles Public Site is to be Sold.

Proceeds to be Applied to a New Building.

Sullivan Replies to Hearst. Debate on Revenue.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.) WASHINGTON, Feb. 14 .- [Exclusive Dispatch. I Another step toward giving Los Angeles that fine new public building that she is going to have some time, when all of the necessary red tape can be uncoiled, was taken today, when the House Committee on Public Buildings and Grounds reported to the House an omnibus public building bill, in which was incorporated a paragraph authorizing the Secretary of the Treasury to sell the old publicbuilding site and apply the proceeds to a new building. This legislation ought to have been incorporated into the latest public building bill making an appropriation for Los Angeles, but things got somewhat mixed. Now comes this provision:
"That to enable the Secreatry of the Freasury to make provision for a Federal building in keeping with the needs of the public service in Los Angeles. the act of Congress approved April 22, 1904, is hereby amended so as to authorize and empower the Secretary of the Treasury to sell the old Federal building site at the corner of Main and Winston streets at such a time and upon such terms as he may deem to be to the best interests of the to be to the best interests of the United States, but for not less than $200,000 and to apply the proceeds so derived from such sale toward the cost of constructing the new Federal building heretofore authorized to be erected in said city, in the discretion of the Secretary of the Treasury to apply not to exceed $100,000 thereof for the acquisition by purchase, condemnation or otherwise of land for the enlargement of the new Federal demnation or otherwise of land for the enlargement of the new Federal building site bounded by Main, Temple, New High and Commercial Streets, and the balance thereof shall be applied to the construction of a new Federal Building, and the limit of cost of said new Federal Building and site thereof is hereby increased by an amount equal to the net proceeds derived from the sale of the old Federal Building site heerinbefore authorized to be sold."

Representative McLachlan did not fancy, at first, putting a upset price on the old site, but it is understood now, on good authority, that it will sell for considerably more than $200,000. There is no chance that new hole thing will be tied up again by this provision. It tied up again by this provision. It it does bring considerably more than $200,000, there will then be available for the new building and some additional land for a site something more than $1,000,000, and it is said to be quite within receibilities. $100,000 be paid for more and for a new site and an even million dollars for a new building. There is available un-der the old appropriations now $850,-000 for the building alone.

REGULAR SESSION. (BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS A.N.)
WASHINGTON, Feb. 14.—SENATE,
—Inmediately after the Senate conyened today, the Agricultural Appropriation Bill was taken up, the Hansvened today, the Agricultural Appropriation Bill was taken up, the Hansbrough amendment, intended to be a constitutional interpretation of the portions of the Dingley law relating to the duty on wheat, being first considered. It declares that paragraph 234 of that act, which imposes a specific duty on wheat, shall not be held to be affected by the provisions of section 30 of the same act, which provides for a drawbank on imported articles used in domestic manufacture.

Mr. Hansbrough spoke in support of the amendment. He contended that the decision allowing a drawback or imported wheat was wrong, because the portion of the flour made from such wheat could not be distinguished from that made of the domestic product, as he argued was necessary under the drawback provision. He said the online would be far-reaching, extending to all articles used in manufacture.

"We hear much about the tariff revision," Mr. Hansbrough remarked, "but if the practice of the Treasury Department in accordance with this decision is to go on, such revision,"

Coming to the specific matter in Coming to the specific matter in decision is to go on, such revision will be unnecessary, because the Treasury Department will make its own revision."

Coming to the specific matter in question, he said that the price paid for imported wheat would fix the price of the entire wheat product of the United States.

Mr. Patterson of Colorado made inquiry as to whether the amendment would affect wheat only, and while Mr. Hansbrough answered in the affirmative, Mr. Allison took the opposite view, saying that, constructively, it would affect all industries using imported articles. Mr. Patterson expressed the opinion that the interrelation should be general, and Mr. Heyburn expressed sympathy with that view, saying that the lead-mine owners especially need relief. He asserted that the opinion of former atty. Gen. Griggs on importations of lead had worked the indirect repeal of the duty on lead ore.

Mr. Hansbrough said that wheat grown in the United States was protected, and had the effect of making the price of wheat in this country worth from 17 to 20 cents per bushel more than Canadian wheat, and he predicted that the practice in conformity with the recent decision would have the effect of lowering the price of American wheat, while it increased the price of the Canadian article.

Mr. Patterson contended that Mr. Olney's construction of the law in connection with the importation of ores had been correct. He said that the smelting industry to the, extent of driving independent smelters out of existence, and doing great injury to entire mining communities.

Mr. McCumber supported the Hansbrough amendment, asying the effect of the decision is to establish free trade and to bring the price of American wheat to the Canadian level.

An amendment suggested by Mr.
Allison, striking out of the portion construing the intention of the Dingley law and confining it to the operation of the law, was accepted.

Mr. Patterson's amendment was voted down, and then the Senate resumed the trial of Judge Swayne. After two witnesses had testified, Manager Palmer attempted to have the statement voluntarily made by Judge Swayne before the House committee in November last placed before the Senate, but it was decided that the testimony was inadmissible. The court then adjourned, and the Senate resumed consideration of the Agricultural Appropriation Bill.

a party concerned in the assault, and was only technically guilty. Accordingly the court placed my case on file.

"I was not fined one cent nor imprisoned one minute. After 18 months of my father's term had been served, the Governor's Council of Massachusetts pardoned him, and their action was due to the fact that two witnesses who did not appear at the trial in the court came before the Governor's Council and testified, one that he had gone with the deceased to a hotel in Boston, where he obtained liquor, and that the deceased came back with him that night intoxicated. The other witnessestified that, during the night, the deceased got up in his house, and while proceeding toward the yard which adjoined the premises fell down a flight of stairs, was then picked up unconscious, brought to his hed and remained there without regaining consciousness until he died. This raised a doubt in the minds of the Governor's Council as to whether the fall on the curbstone had caused the man's death of them inclining to the view that it was the fall down the stairs, most of them inclining to the view that it was the fall downstairs which produced the fracture of the skull that resulted in unconsciousness, from which he never recovered."

"I am constrained to say, however," said Mr. Sullivan, "that if my father were now alive and he were to be attacked in my presence, I would come again to his defense."

All the facts, he said, were fully published in all the newspapers in the city of Boston at the time, and were before his constituents when he was elected to the Massachusetts Senate in 1900 and 1904, "and to was an 1904 and 1904

"ACORDING TO REVENUES."

WASHINGTON, Feb. 14.—Anticipating a deficiency at the end of the fiscal year at from eighty to ninety million dollars, if all the appropriation bills reported become laws, Mr. Littlefield of Maine inquired of Mr. Foss if it were wise to appropriate in excess of the revenues. Mr. Foss replied that, on geferal priciples. Congress ought to appropriate according to the revenues. Mr. Littlefield discussed conditions existing in the Philippines, and said they would continue to be a veritable Pandora's box. He would he said, vote to strike off every tariff between the United States and the Philippines, not because he believed in free trade between the United States and in the Hight of history, be deemed worth while."

The future would determine whether this "altruistic international experience may," he said, "in the light of history, be deemed worth while."

The Philippine archipelago, he said, planted the United States in the storm center of international controversies and disturbances and the Philippines, so long as retained, would necessitate a large increase in the army and navy. "Japan," he said, "is now engaged in that hellish trade of war, and ever since she was driven out of Manchurla by the brutal concert of the intenational European powers and Russia, left in charge, had been devoting her seal, energy, ability, patriotism and religious fervor in preparing for the trace of war."

While it may be wise to keep the "open door" with China, he said, he did not know "how large the stick may need to be to keep between the door and its jamb." Speaking of the South American republies, Mr. Littlefield expressed apprehension that the United States must sit upon the threshold of every South American republic "and keep the door open, in order that it may cash their checks or collect the indebtedness of any single power."

The bill was then laid aside, and resolutions were adopted calling upon the Secretary of tion as to the reasons for cancel a certain contract and rejecting certain bid of the Midvale Steel Copany, and giving the orders to anot company, and also requesting Secretary to furnish information reling to experiments with certain grecotton shells on plate armor.

Civil Appropriation Bill. The bill appropriates 365,558,880, which is an increase of 37,518,680 over the appropriations for the current year, and is 35,992,467 less than the estimates of the various departments. The increase is accounted for as follows, under three heads:

Excess required to meet certain contract obligations for the construction of public buildings, 36,234,339: excess reported to meet contract obligations for river and harbor work, 32,571,332: amount required for construction of building for the National Museum and to meet contract obligations therefor, as required by law, 31,500,000.

New items in the bill include: Pormarking boundary between Alaska and Canada, 365,000; for legation building at Peking. China, 310,000 for completion of building and 420,000 for furnishing.

In the following regular items of appropriation, increases have been made in amounts as follows: Interstate Commerce Commission, 310,000, making a total appropriation of 375,000, to enable the commission to observe the compliance of the law to promote the safety of employes and travelers on railways: for powerhouse for the Capitol library and office building for the House of Representatives, 236,000; for artificial limbs, 3505,000; for aid in support of State and Territorial homes for disabled volunteer soldiers, $125,000.

Items in which reductions of current appropriations have been made infor disabled volunteer soldiers, $125,000.

Items in which reductions of current appropriations have been made include: For lighthouse, beacons and fog signals, $286,930; for survey of public lands, $135,000; for expense of collection of revenue from sale of public lands, $135,000; for expenses of Executive Mansion, $8000; for the construction of buildings at military posts, $600,000; for improvement of Tellowstone National Park, $117,000; for national military parks, $48,000.

The legislation in the bill makes an appropriation for surveys of the Pacific Ocean amounting to $178,000 available. The appropriations for river and harbor work under contract include the following items: San Pedro Harbor, California, $460,000; Stockton and Mormon channels, California, $43,16.

The items in the bill for public buildings already contracted for include: Fresno, Cal., $25,000; San Francisco, $100,000; Seattle, $375,000; Tacoma, Wash., $25,000.

seif practically defeat the object of the legislation."

Becretary Taft, in reply, said:

"I think you are correct in assuming that a great majority of the officers in the army regard the anticanteen amendment as ill-advised and as likely to increase rather than decrease drunkenness in the ranks. Indeed, I must admit to you that, as at present advised, I share their opinion. The Secretary then says he recognises that it was the intention of those who favored the amendment to substitute for the canteen a commodious post exchange, and that the question whether the present system is to be maintained or the canteen restored with the privilege of drinking beer and light wines only will be settled by Congress after a careful investigation.

DAY OF PRAYER.

Religious Glow is Seen and Felt Throughout the City-Summing up of Work of Evangelists in All the Districts-Grand Showing.

German Methodyt Church, on Olive sireet, and was led by H. W. Stough.

THE HARVEST.

At noon a meeting was held in Blanchard's Hall, attracting many business men. Here W. E. Biederwolf was the speaker. This was followed by a meeting at 2 o'clock in the First Methodist Church, conducted by Evangelist Walton. This was a consecration service for ministers and church officers, and was a solemn service, touching many people deeply. It was an apt preparation for the general-public services of the afternoon.

All the districts held their evening sessions as usual, and in all the meeting places were filled. Dr. Ostrom spoke at the First Methodist Church, and-his place in the Immanuel Church meeting was taken by Dr Chapman. At the central district meeting an interesting after-service was held in the bagement, and twenty-five persons professed the beginning of conversion.

UNIFICATION.

HAVE you ever stood and lessened to four thousand people godwing forth their hearts in sones of praise and carnest supplication to God? Have you ever looked out upon a great clear the charches through that was hushed in the silent prayer of consecration, and that later was led on and on, upward to the high planes of resolve for self-sacrifice and self-abasement, deeper love for neighbor and for the souls of men everywhere? Have you seen such faces alight with a glow that was nowhere else on land or on self-and have you felt in all this that these people were terribly in carnest over the great union of many?

Such was the ensemble at the Temple Auditorium. It was but a counterpart of the other meetings held at various points in the city yesterday, probably the climax of the great union revival services now in progress in Los Angeles. Tuesday was a day remarkable in the church annals of the city, despite the failure of the plan for store-ciosing.

It was a day memorable to many a man and many a woman as that on the failure of the plan for store-closing.

It was a day memorable to many a man and many a woman as that on which they made a definite consecration to Christian service. It was a day of great revival for Christians as well as the unsaved.

Yesterday was set apart especially for prayer and consecration. Probably the most intense meeting was that at the Temple Auditorium in the after-con-really two meetings merged into one, for the song and praise service at the song and praise service at the thing of a few more persons into the already dangeroustrium additorium.

BOYLE HEIGHTS SIGNERS.

At Boyle Heights Evangelist Stough spoke on the theme "Morality Will.

Seventy seekers for pardon gathered at the chancel rails in the University Methodist Church last night, and as these knelt around Evangelist Biederwoolf, the Christians in the congregation went forward and a "Mispan Circle" was formed around them, while there was a season of short prayers and testimonies. "The Justice of the Atonement and the Reasonableness of Christianity" was the preacher's theme; and the heavers were deeply moved by the discourse. An estimate of 400 brands plucked from the burning during this campaign is made by those in touch with the work in the University district.

NINETY ON EAST SIDE.

NINETY ON EAST SIDE.

More modest in their estimates of conversions are the workers in the East Side district. Over there it is said their laye been ninety agard signers. Of these thirty have expressed a preference for the Presbyterian Church, and thirty-five for the Methodist Church. The others have been contered among the various denominations represented in that district. It is said the greatest work in that territory has been the thorough revival of the interest of church members them neives, and all the East Side churches are feeling the evangelistic spirit.

A HOST HERE.

From the central district comes the report of greatest results, as this district fluides more churches tham any other, and is right in the center of population,
It was estimated by one of the pas-NINETY ON EAST SIDE.

The Amalgamated Gold Company of Quartzsite, Tuma county, is putting in a stamp mill at its property, which is 100 miles from the nearest railroad station, at Martinez. The mill will probably be erected by July, and started with sixty stamps, to be increased to 120 when needed.

SANTA ANA MILL.

The Santa Ana Tin Mining Company expects to get its mill in operation next week. The plant has been changed to admit the use of the new work to be undertaken by the company, and the operations will be watched with much interest. As there is very little in the mill work, however, that has not been tried before, General Manager Cromer has no doubt of its success. The starting up has been delayed a little by the heavy reins that flooded the cafion and rendered the handling of supplies difficult. SANTA ANA MILL.

It was estimated by one of the pastors yesterday that so far the results would show 1500 signatures on cards, and besides these a great number of hands had been raised in each meeting of which no accurate account could be kept.

Here, too, the evangelistic spirit in the various churches is noted as greatly renswed. Dr. Robert Mcintyre believes the work accomplished in his occurrent to christ. The spirit of the revival will be sure to capture them before they get away.

But while the churches are generally sentinged, the residence of the country be considered to the country be carried a sick wife, who held in her arms the remains of their four-monthation of the work accomplished in his occurrent to the work accomplished in his occurrent to surrender to Christ. "CHEROKEE BILL."

PORTLAND, (Or.) Feb. 11.-While some three thousand men seek to be guards at the Lewis and Clark Ex-position, and many have excellent recommendations, only one man of the whole three thousand has been definite-recommendetions, only one man of the whole three thousand has been definitely promised the position. The man is "Cherokee Bill," and he bears a recommendation from the President of the United States.

"Cherokee Bill," otherwise Private E. S. Kinkead, was one of "Teddy" Roosevelt's rough riders, and was a friend of President Rooseveit when the latter was a plainsman. Cherokee wrote the President a while ago, reminding him of the fact that the writer had been a member of the troop that stormed san Juan Hill, and telling him that he desired to see the Pacific Northwest, and the Lewis and Clark Exposition. He would like compensation sufficient to pay his expenses.

"Cherokee's" letter, with a note from the White House, reached the Exposition offices a day or two ago, and President Goode of the Exposition Company at once ordered that the rough rider be given the place he sought. "Cherokee" was one of the Jefferson guards at St. Louis.

[Ex-Attaché, in Pittsburgh Dispatch.]
During the past week public attention here has once more been attracted by sanguinary riots at Warsaw, Loda and in other important cities and towns of Poland to a people whose fate has always excited in a very marked degree the interest of Americans. From the time when Thaddeus Kosciusko fought for the independence of the United States as A.D. C. to George Washington, his services being commensorated by means of a monument on the banks of the Hudson at West Point and by the Kosciusko School for Negroes, which President Thomas Jefferson founded at Newark, Poland's lot has always appealed to the American sympathy. Her struggle for the recovery of her independence, which has continued in many different forms and phases almost without interruption for more than one hundred years, has been signalized by so many romantic episodes, has furnished such wonderful examples of bravery, patristism and of chivalrous self-sacrifice that anything which affects the welfare of the Poles meets with a keener appreciation over here them anywhere less in the world.

A physician puts the query: Have you never noticed in any large restau rant at lunch or dinner time the large number of hearty, vigorous old men at the tables; men whose ages run from 60 to 30 years; many of them bald and all perhaps gray, but none of them feeble or senile?

Perhaps the spectacle is so common as to have escaped your observation or comment, but nevertheless it is are object lesson which means something. If you will notice what these hearty old fellows are eating you will observe that they are not munching bran crackers nor gingerly picking their way through a menu card of new fangled health foods; on the contrary, they seem to prefer a juicy roast of beef, a properly turned loin of mutton, and even the deadly broiled lobster is not altogether ignored.

The roint of all this is that a vigorous contracts and the sent that a vigorous contracts are contracted as the sent that a vigorous contracted the sent that t and even the deadly broiled lobster is not altogether ignored.

The point of all this is that a vigorous old age depends upon good digestion and plenty of wholesome food, and not upon dieting and an endeavor to live upon bran crackers.

There is a certain class of food cranks who seem to believe that meat, coffee, and many other good things are rank poisons, but these cadaverous, sickly-looking individuals are a walking condemnation of their own theories.

The matter in a nutshell is that if the stomach secretes the natural digostive juices in sufficient quantities, any wholesome food will be promptly digested; if the stomach does not do so, and certain foods cause distress, one or two of Stuart's Dyspepsia' Tablets after each meal will remove all difficulty, because they supply Just what every weak stomach lacks, pepsin, hydrochloric acid, diastase and nux.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

The result was that she escaped the surgeon's knife and to-day is a well woman.

The derangement of the delicate female organism sets every nerve in the body quivering with pain. Headaches, backaches, torturing bearing down pains and dragging sensations make women nervous and hysterical.

DEAR MRS. PIRKHAM: — I was troubled for eight years with irregularities which broke down my system and brought on extreme nervousness and hysteria. I could neither enjoy my meals norsleep nights, became easily irritated and nervous and very despendent. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound proved to be the only medicine which helped me. After taking the third bottle, my general health began to impty ve. At the end of the fifth month I was well and could attend to my household and social duties and enjoy life.

MRS. CHESTER CURRY, 42 Saratega Street, East Boston, Mass.

Mrs. Curry, whose portrait appears on the right, is the leader of the Ladies' Symphony Orchestra. The following letter is from Miss Goode, President of the Bryn Mawr Lawn Tennis Club of Chicago:

Dear Mrs. Printman: — I tried many different remedies is try to build up my system, which had become run down from loss of proper rest and unaeasonable neura, but nothing seemed to help me. Mother is a great advocate of Lydia Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for female troubles, having used it herself some years ago with great success. So I began to take it, and in less than a month I was able to be out of hed and out of doors, and in three months I was entirely well. Really I have never felt so etrong and well as I have since.

ADO BEACH. ON SMALL LINE.

Arrangements have been periected by which the entire real estate, insurance and investment business of Easton, Eldridge & Co. has been transferred and absorbed by us. The future of this Company will be made noticeable by our methods of straightforward dealing and the handling of gilt-edged property only. The employes of the Easton, Eldridge Co. will remain with us and conduct the business as in the past.

Invest in University Heights, San Diego.

This company is the foremost real estate concern in San Diego and has the management of sales for the University Heights tract in San Diego. This tract lies directly in the line of residence expansion and at the present time 300 homes have been built on it. These homes cluster round a State Normal School building costing $150,000.00, and are reached by an electric car line which passes directly through the tract.

San Diego is the only HARBOR CITY on the United States sea coast that is in process of development. All other natural harbors have been developed and cities have grown about them. The San Diego harbor is just on the eve of great development. Its location on the map is proof conclusive that it will become the most important Southwestern seaport, and also the Southwestern terminus for numerous trans-continental railroads. Two new railroads are now being surveyed and one new road is being built.

$1,450 Invested in University Heights Brought $5,000 Returns

A residence and a pair of lots which cost originally $1,450 were sold last December for $5,000. The property as originally built was worth $2,000, but the contract price was $1,450. The difference between $2,000 and $5,000 represents the natural increase in values. This house is located in University Heights near the carline, and where there is a beautiful view of the Bay, the Ocean, Channel Islands and the mountains. University Heights is the fashionable residence district of San Diego. It corresponds to Bonnie Brae and West Adams Heights, but it is not so large. The area is restricted by the natural formation of the land. Investments in this tract are bound to prove profitable. They can't do otherwise.

In San Diego it is almost an impossibility to find a house for rent. Four hundred houses were built last year. Every one is occupied. New houses are now going up and there is a tenant for every one. The superior climate of San Diego and the natural harbor must combine in the upbuilding of what will be one of California's greatest cities.

Prices $100 to $300

The function was given as a compliment to her house guests, Miss Mary Foster of Boston and Miss Genevieve Smith, and also for her cousin, Mrs. Belle Pusey of Louisville, Ky. In the living-room ferns were lightly festooned over walls and doorways, and poinsettias glowed here and there. The Dolmetsches' rendering of olden-time music Monday night at Simpson's pleased a considerable audience.

They are Pests.

The Westlake and southwest parts of the city are infested by a gang of beg gars and solicitors. Great husky reliews, who ought to be at work sawing wood, are tramping around in uniforms of various kinds, ringing people's door bells and asking for "contributions." One of these loafers wears a blue and red uniform, another a blue and red uniform, and a third a brue pad silver uniform. Each claims to belong to some "army" or other. Why these fat, healthy, big-fisted bummers should sponge a living off the publicinstead of earning it is not clear.

Mr. Jennings claims that the purpose of the substitute is to more evenly distribute the funds that this bill would create. He protests, that the substitute would divide these funds among the several county promotion committees throughout the State.

South Pasadena Lingers at the Threshold.

Projectors of Union With Los Angeles Shy.

Fail to Show Hand at Town Hall Meeting.

The element in South Passauem that has been working for annexation to Los Angeles failed to show its hand at a meeting held in the South Passadena Town Hall last night.

Opponents of the project, of whom many were present, declared the annexationists had failed to stir up the expected sentiment and had abandoned their plan.

In breathless guspense, 150 citizens of the little town jammed themselves into the Town Hall to watch the preliminary move for disincorporation,

Then another citizen, to relieve the suspense, moved that the Board of

In explanation of his statement the attorney said he had found Los Angeles officials averse to the apnexation of any more outlying territory, especially South Pasadena, situated as it is at the northern and eastern boundary of the big municipality.

The water question is said to be the principal obstacle, just as it is the main argument used by some South Pasadenans for annexation.

The attorney said Los Angeles suffered a great burden in, the annexation of Garvanza, through the necessity of extending the city water system, to building new reservoirs and laying many niles of mains.

On the other hand, it is said by the pro-annexationists that certain office-holders and others in South Pasadena oppose annexation for selfish reasons. They say that Postmaster Stephens wishes the little city to retain its entity because his office affords him one of the fattest salaries paid in cities of that size. Were the city to be joined to Los Angeles his office would become merely a sub-station of the Los Angeles postoffice, and his salary would suffer in consequence.

REVIVAL USHER THREATENED BY A MANAGER.

Fire Ordinance Was Being Vlo-lated at the Temple Auditorium by Chairs Placed in the Aisles—Au-dience Protested, Janitor Protested,

One of the revival-meeting ushers was threatened with arrest yesterday at the Temple Auditorium. In no other way could Manager Berry prevent the violation of the city's fire ordinance and protect the safety of the packed audience.

A vast crowd had gathered. All the seats were filled. People were begging not to be turned out.

When the seats were all filled, the ushers began bringing in chairs and placing them along the front ainle, which follows the circle of the stage. To fill up this space was to shut off the people on the west side from the exits leading into the annex; it was to place them in a dire trap. The unhers probably did not think of this. They were reminded, however.

As they came in, dragging chairs, was stifting along the sides whispered

The usher smiled at him uneasily, "It's just this one," he said deprecatingly, "There's an oid lady who can't hear well out there and I thought it wouldn't do any hurt for me to bring just one chair for her."

The man in his path did not flinch an inch. "It's too bad about the deaf old lady," he said, "but I shail not allow you to endanger the lives of all these people on her account."

The usher was about to make some reply when a thoroughly angry man pushed his way through the group and confronted the usher. It was the manager.

If he had been a poor sneak thief, instead of the confessed embezzier of $50,000, no consideration would have been shown him, but Kelly was aliowed to have his own way.

In a telegram from Philadelphia received yesterday it was stated that there is a doubt whether the prisoner.

It was a gasp, a quickened beat of the heart and catch of the breath; that was all.

It might have been worse, and but for the action of the manager the space in front of the stage might have been choked.

his act did not result in loss of life, for it was followed by an accident which gave Charles Pierson, a laborer, about as close a call as ever comes to a man. Pierson was on East First street, between Main and Los Angeles, and watched the hose wagon of the No. 3 engine company pass. Then he started across the street, looking all the time at the profile more than the started across the street, looking all the time at across the street, tooking all the time at the rapidly-moving hose wagon, and unmindful of the fact that the heavy steamer was following closely. Driver Tom Fernandez, strapped to his seat on the big engine, could not stop his three-horse team, could not turn to see Bishop Conaty, saying that the bishop is the only man with whom he would talk. He added that he did not wish to see the bishop in fail, and as it was out of the question to take him to the bishop's residence, the interview which he desired with the prelate was not held.

When the dispute had run for more than an hour the motion finally was sidetyacked by Citizen Doherty, who made a place taik, the outcome of which was that the trustees are left in the air as to the feeling of the people. The meeting was called with the avowed intention of forming a city improven ent association.

This was taken on the part of the anti-disincorporationists as a sly move by the annexation element to push its designs to bring about a union of South Pasadena and Los Angeles. On the other hand, the "pros" thought the "antis" would be out in force to block the movement.

Yesterday when he was asked whether there was any person whom he desired to see, he expressed a wish to see Bishop Conaty, saying that the bishop is the only man with whom he would talk. He added that he did not wish to see the bishop in jali, and as it was out of the question to take him to the bishop's residence, the interview which he desired with the prelate was not held.

In a telegram from Philadelphia received yesterday it was stated that there is a doubt whether the prisoner in jail here is really the Owen Kelly who disappeared from that city last October, and it was also stated that it was uncertain whether any criminal charge had been preferred against him. Such doubts are not entertained here. The detectives have what appears to be positive evidence of the identity of their prisoner. Eliminating his own admissions as to who he is, the officers have found papers in his possession which prove concluively that he is the man who has been missing for so many weeks. As to what charge has been lodged against him in the City of Brotherly Love, the officers here know only that from the General Superintendent of Police of that city they have received a telegram which says: "Yes; we want Owen Kelly. Arrest and hold him. We will send for him." It is not probable that a police department would send that telegram unless it was backed by a criminal complaint of some kind.

It was learned yesterday that Kelly was a guest at Hotel Rosslyn on South Main street, where he was registered under the name of Bell. He had been there more than a week, and had remained in his room most of the time, going out 'at night more frequently than during the daytime. In his room yesterday the detectives found only the man's clothing, and nothing which cast any light upon the nature of his operations while in Philadelphia, His suit cases bore numerous steamer and hotel labels, showing that the man had been to Australia, as he had told the police the night before.

City Attorney Mathews yesterday afternoon said that he had not yet received the text of the Supreme Court decision in the Reynolds case. "Unit, I have read the decision," said Mr Mathews. "The appeal would have to be based on the proposition that the decision involved a question arising under the Constitution of the United States, the decision being adverse to the party claiming a right under the Constitution."

While the East Ninth street line belonged to the Loa Angeles Railway Company transfers were given to and received from connecting lines of that company. Not caring to assume so much responsibility, the Chief yesterday morning referred the petition to the Police

"The Salvation Army is doing good work and ought to be encouraged." commented Mayor McAleer.

"They do a great deal of good." added Commissioner Johnson. "Their meetings are held at night and I should not think that they would disturb the merchants much."

Chief. Hammel explained to the Commission that complaints came to him a few weeks ago from the Grand Theater about the Salvation Army meeting in the street in front of that place. He said that he asked the salvationists to move down in front of Hoegee's and that they had complied with his request.

Talked Too Much.

In defending himself before the Police Commission against charges of uncivility to a woman, Patrolman Varey yesterday morning testified to things that the commissioners considered more serious offenses than the one with which he was charged. Varey said that he was standing by when a junk dealer named Fisher called a woman a number of unprintable names. "Did you arrest him?" demanded Commissioter Johnson.
"No. I shoved him along the street and told him to go home."

That reply started Varey's trouble. The commissioners subjected him to a sharp cross-examination and elicited the information that he had taken Fisher to a police-signal box and called the patrol wagen, but had later let his prisoner go. The original charges were considered infinitesimal, but the commission took his action in regard to Pisher's arrest under advisement.

Several years ago, when Judge Wilbur was Chief Depuiy District Attorney, he drafted a bill that was passed by the Legislature of 1882, by which Boards of Supervisors were endowed with the power to deal with the difficulty. But the bill on its final passage was so emasculated as to make it a puzzle. Under the statute the Supervisors have the authority to form a drainage or storm-water district, and use the money in the road fund in that particular road district for the purpose of carrying out drainage improvement. And the Supervisors can draw upon the general fund of the county up to 25 per cent. of the amount on hand. The third and last alternative is for the Supervisors to call an election in the gtorm-water district created, and vote a special tax up to 50 cents per 100 of valuation.

It was generally agreed yesterday that to depend upon drawing any money from the road funds would be futtle. In no district is the road fund large enough to carry on the work demanded by the residents. In some dis-

SALOON MEN VERY GOOD.

Never perhaps in the history of the city have the saloons been conducted as nearly according to ordinance as they are right now.

Warned by a rumor that the Police Commission is seeking for a saloon license to confiscate and deliver over to the Hotel Lankershim, saloon men have suddenly become very, very good.

They believe that the commission has put it up to the Chief of Police to swoop down on zome one of the 230 saloon owners in the city and swipe his license. All are on their good 1-havior waiting for the lightning to strike.

The "ild" is closed tight and every man who owns a share of saloon stock is hanging onto the cover to hold it shut.

An application for a saloon license in the Lankershim Hotel was yesterday morning filed with the clerk of the Folice Commission. The proprietors had evidently expected that one of the locates now held would be thrown into the discard and they wanted to be the first to recover it.

But there was nothing doing in the saloon-license business. The commission discovered a technical flaw in the preparation of the papers and the application was not formsily presented.

HOBO GRAFT TO END.

The Board of Supervisors yesterday indorsed the Senate Bill, No. 255, which is popularly known as the "Hobo Anti-Graff Bill." By its terms the justices of the peace and constables in counties of the second-class will be paid a fixed salary, and the scrambling for fees will end. Los Angeles county is the only county in the State of the second class, and this particular bill was framed as a result of the exploitation by county officers of anyone that came along as a hobo or vagrant merely for the purpose of making fees. The matter threatened to develope into a big scandal, and the Senate bill was drafted to set matters

The Supervisors also indorsed Senate Bill 88, providing that city recorders, marshals and city justices of the peace shall collect no fees from the county in criminal cases.

W. M. Bowen appeared before the board and asked that they take some action regarding Assembly Bill, No. 791 and Senate Bill No. 578. Both of these measures repeal all previous legislation as to district agricultural associations, and for that reason the Chamber of Commerce, Merchants' and Manufacturers' Association and other bodies have pronounced against it. At present a suit is pending here in which the entire status of the Sixth District Association is involved, and the reapel features of these bills would cut the ground from underneath the feet of the plaintiff and take away its capacity to sue.

The Supervisors agreed that both bills should be defeated, and the Los Angeles delegation at Sacramento will be communicated with.

The property is a thirty-acre tract designable for platting out, and was appraised at $20,000. There were several people in court who wanted to have another chance at the tract, and the bidding began at $25,000. With rapid bidding began at $25,000. With rapid bidding the price was run up to $34,000, at which price M. J. Nolan, a real estate man, became the purchaser. A lot at Whittier was also sold for $150, and a diamond stud sold for a comparatively small sum. It was a large stone, but was off color, and had a flaw in it.

The Lawrence estate is about ready for distribution. The deceased was interested in oil, and his estate was appraised at $49,476.45. The homestead, valued at $1500, was set apart for the widow, as was also the furniture and the horse and buggy. By the sale of the principal asset of the estate the amount of money to be distributed will be far in excess of the appraised valuation. The widow will take her one-third share, and two-fitteenths of the estate will fall to the share of each of the children, Alma Glass, Ruby Jones, Catherine Ruferd, Mary Reynolds and Gora B. Rank.

SAY HE'S FEEBLE-MINDED.

The prosecution in the case against C. C. Champion, sharged with having that and killed his brother on December 27, and now being tried before Judge Smith and a jury, closed yesterlay early in the afternoon and the decesse at once began to put it its side

A number of witnesses testified one after the other that the defendant had after the other that the defendant had always been regarded as a little off mentally. It was not that he did things of an extraordinary character, but that he did the ordinary things of life in such an odd way and at such inappropriate moments. These witnesses were for the most part close neighbors of the Champions, while one or two had known the defendant and his brother for many years.

About five months ago the defendant had an accident that resulted in his lower limbs being partially paralyzed, and he had to walk with the aid of crutches. Though the statement was not actually made in direct words, the impression was conveyed that ever not actually made in direct words, the impression was conveyed that ever since that time the old man had acted more queerly than before. One moment he would be bemoaning his fate, and the next he would hobble away to get his violin and, after scraping on it for a while, he would laugh and induige in senile hilarity.

So far, however, no witness has been called to testify to any overt act of the brother, now dead, with the pistol referred to, though yesterday the

WANTED TO BE TIED.

The blacksmith of the poet's fancy, who forged the chain that he felt must be made good and strong to bind his own limbs, as he felt the madness in his blood beginning to take baneful effect, has been duplicated here in the person of Harian B. Pratt. Pratt lives at Glendale and for some time has been melancholy and depressed, but recently he realized that his mind was impaired and he became trightend.

"I couldn't trust myself alone," he said yeaterday to Judge Wilbur, and the members of the Lunacy Commission, and I was frightened of biting my lips. I knew if I did that I would have hydrophobla, because I was bitten by a dog about six months ago. I was living with my mother and two sisters and when a friend came to the house a week ago. I asked him to bind me down hard and tight, so that I couldn't get loose. If I injured myself and I died it wouldn't matter much, but if I injured any one else in my frenzy, it would matter a zrea' deal."

It appeared that Pratt called upon Dr. Wing, who has known the family for many years, and told him the story of his crazy feelings, and asked him if he wouldn't see to it that he was tiej up and prevented from doing harm to any one. The man is a barber and said to be a steady and well-disposed man. He was ordered committed to the State hospital.

FOR PASADENA ACCIDENT.
Late yesterday afternoon Mrs. Accidence, through Attorney M. Lisener, through Attorney M. Lisener, began suit against Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Jefferson, E. C. Costigliole, Frank Hutchinson, J. Kennedy et al., to recover $25,000 as damages for the loss of her husband, Christian Shearer, who was killed in an automobile accident on Monday.

The facts of the automobile being driven by the defendants, other than T. E. Jefferson, and striking Shearer near the village of Lamanda Park, are set out very briefly, and so far are a mere duplication of the statement as already published. Christian Shearer is alleged to have been 29 years of age, healthy and strong, and the sole support of his wife.

COLLINS HOTEL SCHEME. Apropos of the suit brought against W. S. Collins by the Collins Hotel Co., for damages on account of the building never having been erected, the actual reason why the structure was never put up was the action of the city fathers. Plans had been drawn so that the botel would have an elevation of 125 feet in the rear where the slope on the Olive-street hill is very great, but the ordinance bearing upon such matters was amended so that sixty-five feet was made the limit of height for a wooden building. That handicap meant that Mr. Collins could not obtain the rental that he thought that he should have from his property, and for that reason he called the hotel scheme off.

"No, it aint," answered the boy. "It's a game with cards, an' the feller that gets beat gets his nose swatted. Red he ain't no good player, and when he got beat he squealed to de copper, and we wug pinched."

Red is a negro newsy who dropped into the game of "nosey" in the alley-way yesterday afternoon. Oblivious of all traffic in the place, four boys intent upon a game of cards held sway in the alley, and played cards like their lives depended on it. Finally "Red" lost, and before he realized his position three other boys were hammering at his nose.

MOORE HAD MANY WITNESSES A. J. Moore, a carpenter of No. 931 Gladys avenue furnished more wit-nesses in Police Court yesterday than L. E. Reaves could muster, when Moore

"I took the gun away from Reaves, emptied it of cartridges, and handed the weapon back to him," said Moore, "and here are the cartridges."
Reaves was staggered. He swore he had never carried a gun in all his life, but when Moore came back with several witnesses Reaves collapsed.
The preponderance of evidence was in favor of the defendant, so Justice Austin thought, and the case against Moore was dismissed.

REVEL RUNS HER LAST RACE.

Breaks a Leg in the Fifth and is Destroyed.

Jump Race is a Dump for Those Who Bet.

Big Crowd Sees Good Sport and Close Fnishes.

Revel has reveled in her last race at Ascot Park. She fell and broke her right front leg in the fifth yesterday and was destroyed, her rider J. Clark being considerably mussed up in the fall. His luck in not being worse hurt was probably due to the fact that there were only two horses behind him and they were far enough in the rear to turn out.

The passing of Revel is significant in a way, for in the twelve times she started at Ascot she was ridden by the "to-laugh" Jockey Kent, who has also passed out of public view. He won with her once when she was 6 to 1 in the betting and again when she was a 3 to 2 favorite, third when she was a 3 to 2 favorite, third when she was 15 to 1. Altogether she was out of the money six times but must have proven a very fair investment for the owner.

Three favorites won in the six races; another race went to a horse that was long overdue, another to the strongly played Durbar and the other to Cagador the Jumper. On the whole the bettors must have had a fair day of it for when they did win they rapped the storekeepers properly on Position, Kingthorpe, Azelina and Durbar.

JUMP A DUMP.

The jump race furnished a big dump in the betting line but it did not injure anyone very seriously because the average sport is too wise to wager much coin on any event over the Christmas trees. Old man Corrizon taught them in the betting line but it did not injure anyone very seriously because the average sport is too wise to wager much color on any event over the Christmas trees. Old man Corrigan taught them last winter that the scheme of plaging Jump races was a bad one because he generally knew the winer the night before or very soon after breakfast. There was a story floating around last mer of yesteclay's race might not have been known, some sort of a row among the fockeys made it possible for the horse that figured to win to be defeated. Whether or not this taits is the thorse that figured to win to be defeated. Whether or not this taits is the building to the control of too. All kinds of things are liable to happen in a jump race when the even more favorite Grafter ran third, Cozador winning by a head from Jim Boseman. The well played Allegiance ran a bad fifth in a six horse race. The whole thing was to laugh. PUDDIN WINS FOUR.

The feature of the day in the jockey life was the work of McDaniel, who wan four races out of five times in the saddle. He was first on Bandillo at 7 to 2 on Position at 3 to 2. Aselima at 7 to 19 and Durbar at $10.5 and he won overything easily except with Position and this was in a drive. He was fourth on Cottillon in the fourth race but his chances in this were lost by being cut off on the far turn.

The Position race was the best in the way of finishes for the four horse, Position, Ripper, Invictus and Golden Light finished heads apart, Position and this was in a drive. He was fourth on Cottillon in the fourth race but his chances in this were lost by being cut off on the far turn.

The Position race was the best in the way of finishes for the four horse, Position, Ripper, Invictus and Golden Light finished heads apart, Position and this was in a drive. He was fourth of the field.

With only $4 pounds on ter back, Azolina went out and won again yes-claim and the position race was the best in the stretch. Position started out is at a susual and ran in that place for a quarter of a mile and then those that don't like her at light weight should stay away from the track when she is in. Dod Anderson was second and the new starter Mocorita third. Mart Gentry got a bad start and was never in the race.

Kingthorpe, the post favorite, easily won tine fourth race from Frank Perley and Metlakatla, the well played Del Coronado being cut off at the last turn and losing all his chances. Durbar easily annexed the last event from the favorite Tyron, Curl's good one making every post a winning one. The long shot Ericula at 46 to 1 suddenly woke up and ran third. The usual "paddock special" dead one in this race was Formilta, who was never better than fourth and finished sixth.

The usual crowl of 5000 people saw the sport. It was ladies' day and the sprand stand was full, while underneath, the betting ring was packed all the afternoon.

ing a retainer fee, make no further effort, that it is gathering evidence for an investigation.

Many cf these so-called real estate agents make their living by these "retainer fees," but make no effort to find a purchaser. Many persons who, from one cause or another, desire to sell their properties for cash, have sent their last dollar to these men, and never heard from them again.

The Poetoffice Department has asked the victims to forward all correspondence and literature which they have received, including the envelopes in which such matter wa mailed, all properly marked for identification, together with detailed statements of the transactions, and if the facts warrant it, there will be "something doing." There are a lot of dupes of these "real estate agents" in this valley who would like to know what they put up their good money for.

The doctrine which the President promulgates is not new. It is older than the foundations of our government, though it has never come so near to realization in practice as it has been brought by the founders and preservers of this government. It is a doctrine to which every true American should be willing to subscribe. Equal rights are guaranteed by our national Constitution and by the organic and statutory laws of the country in general. The constitutional and statutory guaranties must in course of time become a living reality throughout the land, unless we are to follow the path of retrogression rather than that of progress.

THE MIDWINTER.

THE MIDWINTER.

(Brooklyn Times:] Truly, the phenomenal growth abd the restless energy of the western section, and especially the Pacific Coast region, is something to marvel at. We have before us the mammoth midwinter issue of the Los Angeles Times, printed on January 1, and containing ninety-six pages of letter-press and illustrated matter. It's all bright, newsy and entertaining, and tells most eloquently of the rise to prominence of that beautiful, semi-tropical city by the Pacific, Los Angeles. The marvelous growth in population of the city may best be illustrated by quoting The Times' figures, which give the present population at 176,000, an increase of over 70 per cent. since 1900, when the last census was given. In Los Angeles county the vote in 1800 was but 22,995; in 1904, 48,508, more than doubling in the short period of four years.

Today, as The Times aptly says, Los Angeles may properly be described as the hub of the great Southwest. "It is the natural financial and commercial center of all the great mining and frigating enterprises that are in operation, or about to be undertaken, in the vast and mostly undeveloped stretch of territory that extends from Fresno on the north to El Paso and Sonora on the south."

In commercial activity, manufacturing, and the necessary civic improvements in the way of well-equipped electric railroads, lighting plants and the like, Los Angeles has taken a place which has made her the source of envy to many of the cities of greater magnitude in the effete East.

The Times has grown apace with the prest dailies of the country, and will grow alike in importance and power as the city advances and takes its position among the great manufacturing centers of the country. In its wealth of illustrations, well-written aspecials and general news matter, The Times has shown that its working material is of the best the country affords, and that its prosperity is assured. Melba's Concert.

There is a legend in Grecian lore that an art connoisseur of Athens once traveled scores of miles to see an extraordinary statue of whose beauty he had heard much, and when he reached his destination and found what appeared a very simple piece of workmanship, in clear marble, he was greatly distressed to discover that men almost worklipped clear marble, he was greatly distressed to discover that men almost worshipped it. More rigid examination revealed the fact that the whole creation was perfect—that its lines were marvels of human symmetry, its pose the embodiment of natural grace, its composition the purest and most flawless white stone; and when he heard this, the connoisseur gave twice the price that he had originally allowed himself for the expenditure, and carried the statue to his home as the choicest of his possessions.

Last night Ame. Melba sang the mad scene from "Lucia," Tosti's "Serenata," and Arditi's "Se Saran Rose." These were her programmed numbers, to which she added several encores. After exhibiting a technique in the "Lucia" number that sent out silver showers of vocal pyrotechnics, Mme. Melba responded to the applause with a simple English ballad, sung not with warm sentimentality, but with a voice so perfect and so perfectly used that in her planissimo passages a heavy breath seemed clearly audible in the great auditorium.

Here also was exhibited the beauty of Melba's lower register. A dramatic soprano, having something of the contralto quality in her voice, charms in her lower tones with this note. Melba's C's and D's, however, are formed like the low tones on the upper strings of a violin-boasting no 'cello strength, but vibrant with a gentle refinement of richness all their own.

The Melba supporting company is far more than acceptable. It is worthy of any star. Among the singers is the celebrated Claude Charles Marie Gillibert, baritone. Gilibert's performance last night did not demonstrate a voice of unusual quality or compass, but exhibited a finish of art rare indeed in a vocalist of his class—where a robust voice is so often made to stand alone in lieu of scholariy attainment.

Ellison Van Hoose, tenor, while not as expert a master of effect as Gilibert, is nevertheless the possessor of a beautiful voice, ringing with splendid brightness in the highest passages, and in most phrases discriminatingly used.

Ada Sassoli, a pretty young Italian girl, is a harpist of superb technique, and possesses, besides, true artistic intuition and great powers of expression.

Gliibert sang two eighteenth-century songs and Ppeiffer's "Malgre Moi:" Van Hoose offered "Celeste Alda;" Signorina Sassoli played a harp ballad and accompanied the diva. Mr. North, flutist, and Miss Davies, p

WILD TRIBES AT FAIR.

PORTLAND, (Or.) Peb. 11.—Native villages will be a feature of the Philippine display at the Lewis and Clark Exposition, and they will embrace a more comprehensive showing of the manners and customs of the wild tribes of the islands than did those at St. Louis.

The villages will be inhabited by about three hundred natives representing several different servers.

rotes and Negritos will build squarty little huts in the wooded portion of the peninsula. The Visayans will be located on the Trail where they will conduct a native theater.

The natives who were at the St. Louis Exposition have returned to the Philippines. They went home with the intention of telling the people of their tribe of the wonders of America, and many are also looking forward to their return to Portiand next spring. Antonio, chief of the Bontoe Igorrotes, a warrior who has five human heads to his credit, visited Portland with Dr. T. K. Hunt, who collected and had charge of the exhibit at St. Louis. As Antonio will return to the Lewis and Clark Exposition, he desired to look over the grounds, so that he could tell the people where they were coming next year. Antonio was much pleased with the Exposition and the Rose City, and will exert his influence in Dr. Hunt's behalf, in the collection of the natives.

and will exert his influence in Dr. Hunt's behalf, in the collection of the natives.

When Dr. Hunt was arranging for the St. Louis exhibit, he was handicapped by the fact that the Igorotes had never been more than ten miles away from home, and knew practicalive nothing of the outside world. They had no idea where they were going, how they would get there or whether they would ever return. But, nevertheless, some of them put explicit confidence in Dr. Hunt, who had lived with them for a year and who had always been their friend. Naturally there were some of the warriors of the tribe, flightny men of six feet in stature, who refused to make the trip. But the glowing accounts of the safely returned travelers will create a desire in the rest of the people to visit America, and Dr. Hunt can take his pick of the best types of men and women on the island.

Besides the wild tribes, the government will detail 100 Filipino scouts for duty at the Exposition. The scouts are made up of representatives of the higher class of Filipinos and are a part of the regular army. A band of native musiclans will probably accompany the company.

Way of the Issue of Angeles High School Bends.

Bonds.

The proposed $780,000 school bonds are temporarily held up. Record searchers have been put to work to elucidate a difficulty that has arisen. The Board of Education is unable to determine whether such a thing as a high school district exists here, or whether the "Los Angeles school district" has a high school in its midst. President Bicknell, chairman of the bond committee, called the attention of the bond committee, called the attention of the bond to this state of affairs, asking more time. It was granted. The point does not affact the validity of the bonds in any way; it is merely the wish of the board to have them issued in such strict accordance with all technicalities that no possibility of error nicalities that no possibility of a can exist. The city, meanwhile, is ting for nothing the services of high-priced lawyers who are member the board.

TESTIMONIALS FOR GRADUATES IN SANTA ANA.

Officers Refuse to Divulge Name of Girl Grafter Who Has Been Operating in Guiss of Applicant for Donations of Old Clothing—Opposition to Increasing County Salaries.

SANTA ANA. Feb 14.—The formal graduation exercises of the '65 A class of the High School were held at the operahouse last night before an audience that filled every seat in the building. After music by the Santa Ana Orchestra, Rev. J. H. Garnett "ronounced the invocation, and the salutatory address was delivered by Miss Salile Catland on the theme "For Value Received I Promise to Pav." Miss Lura Sheats gave the valedictory address, "Leaving the Harbor." after which Principal E. B. Oakley introduced the class. J. A. Hankey, vice-president of the High School trustees, made a brief response, and the diplomas were presented by John Beatty, secretary of the board.

Members of the class then rendered the play, "The Merry Cobbler," in a manner that delighted the audience. The scenes were interspersed with lusty class yells. A generous spirit of class rivalry added to the evening's pleasure.

GIRL GRAFTER.

A young lady, whose name the officers refuse to divulge, is said to beworking a clever graft on the unsuspecting public under the guise of solic.

country salaries.

Interest of politicians here is centered in rumored changes in the County Government Act of this county, by which, so it has been claimed, the salaries of county officers are to be raised, commencing with the new terms two years from the county officers are to be raised, commencing with the new terms two years from this date. A carvass of the situation has been made by both Assemblyman Amerige and Senator Anderson of this district, and it is understood that both of these representatives stand together in opposition to any general increase in the officers themselves. The principal argument advanced for a change is that in counties of less population the stiarles are higher than in Orange county. Assemblyman Amerige is quoted as saying that he will not bring any amendment for advance in salaries nor will be support any such amendment neless he is so instructed by the people of this district. It is probable, however, that an amendment will be offered to the County Government Act by the concurrence of both representatives, making minor changes in existing conditions, principally in the matter of Recorder's salary, which will be made to depend in future partially upon percentage of fees received, which is the custom generally followed in other counties of the State.

DEATH OF PIONEER.

The girl in question is said to approach people for old clothes to be used for charitable distribution and, after gaining entrance to a house, is charged with picking up valuables while the good lady of the mansion is hunting for garments. Mrs. J. A. Finley on Spurgeon street was visited by the grafter vesterday, and she detected the girl rifling, a purse. Mrs. Finley accused the girl of taking money, and after she had left found $2.50 in cash, where the girl had secreted it in her haste, after taking it from the purse.

A substitute ordinance demanding high licanse, expressly fixing the hours for closing saloons, and demanding the absolute prohibition of gambling, was turned down as too drastic.

One feature of the convention was the necessity of a second vote in selecting a candidate for recorder, more votes being cast on the first ballot than there were delegates voting. The beautiful suburban home of Mr. and Mrs. Thaddeus Lowe of Garfield avenue was the scene yesterday afternoon and evening of a large social function. This was the golden wedding of Prof. and Mrs. Thaddeus S. C. Lowe, who were married fifty years ago Valentine's day.

The wide verandas were canvas-inclosed and the snowy surface of these improvised walls were delicately etched with feathery bamboo: potted plants and wood ferns added their green, and the floors were strewn with rugs. Easy chairs and divans transformed these porches into cosy lounging-rooms. The drawing-room, where the reception party stood, was ormamented with white stock and avenue.

Guest Hogan did the auctioneering, and intoned the "last call" with such persuasive procrastination that, articles originally costing 10, 20 and 30 cents were knocked down finally for $30, $40 and $50 cach. A $100 bill put up by Benjamin F. Furgeson of Chicago was bid in at $150; the last package in the barrel, a diminutive one, was sold and resold ten times, netting $102 in all—and was discovered by the last bidder, a lady, to be a sample one-drink flask of Scotch whisky. As a wind-up the half-barrel was bid in by George Hall, Mayor of Ogdensburg, N. Y., at $100.

HOENIX (Ariz.) Feb. 12.—Judge eph H. Kibbey, today appointed by President to be Governor of Arian, succeeds Alexander O. The appointment of Judge Kibbey is of the most popular that could ve been made, and has been revived locally with strongest expresses of general satisfaction. torney-General of the Territory, he has served as a member of the Territorial Council and as a justice of the Supreme Court of Arizona. While on the beach, between 1859 and 1833, he became widely known for his decision establishing the justice of the then novel, but now accepted, contention that Irrigating canals are not in any wise owners of the water they carry. In private law practice Judge Kibbey hus attained high reputation as an expert on irrigation law. His plan for the formation of irrigation district associations has been adopted by the interior Department for all lands to be served by the new water storage enterprises under construction by the Reclamation Service. To him very largely is due the credit for perfecting negotiations between the land owners and the government for the construction of the great Tonto Basin dam. He is attorney for the water users' associations of both the Salt River and Colorado River valleys.

Judge Kibbey is about 52 years of age. He is a native of Indiana, his father and grandfather alike haying been lawyers of distinction. In 1875 he was admitted to the bar in his father and grandfather alike haying been lawyers of distinction. In 1875, he was wedded to Miss Norah Burbank, daughter of Gov. J. A. The honor came to Judge Kibbey entirely without solicitation by him, and on this account he is the more deeply gratified by it.

GRADE REDUCTIONS.

Surveyors are working on plans designed to give the Santa Fé Railroad grades in Western Arizona not exceeding seventy-five feet to the mile. The cost of the improvement will be heavy in the neighborhood of Kingman, but the present route, of heavy grades and in cafions where washouts are unavoidable, has to be abandoned. There is a story, little believed, that the Santa Fé will change its line west of Williams, to avoid the heavy grades of Johnston Cafion. The story is that the track will be changed to the northward, necessitating the moving of the junction point of Ast Fork about four miles to the northward. Seligman is specified as the western terminus.

The new alkali precipitating plants for the Santa Fé through Now Mexico and Arizona are about comfete. Tests have shown them a great success in eliminating the mineral salts that do damage to the locomotive boilers. It has been estimated that it has cost $750 a year for the elimination of scale from the boiler tubes of a single locomotive, plus the waste of fuel caused by incrusted tubes. MAY REBUILD SMELTER.

Frank M. Murphy, president of the Santa Fé, Prescott and Phoenix Railway system, has returned from the East with a party of capitalists interested in the Bradshaw Mountain Copper Mining and Smelting Company. The especial object of the trip is the rebuilding of the Val Verde smelter, near Mayer, destroyed by fire several months ago. It is proposed to build a smelter capable of treating 500 tons of ore a day, of whatever character. Such a smelter must be had if there be continued development of the mines of the Bradshaw Mountains.

Promoters of the scheme for tunneling the Black Hills near Jerome are preparing a bill for presentation to Congress, granting many privileges, including the free cutting of timber, exemption from taxation and free rights of way, as well as a grant of every alternate section along a railroad proposed to be built across Lonesome Valley and through the tunnel. It is believed that several thousand acres in Lonesome Valley can be irrigated by the flow of water from the tunnel.

Work has been begun on the flumes and tunnels of the Arizona Power Company, a Los Angeles corporation also known as the Fossil Creek Electric Company. As stated by Engineer R. S. Mason of Los Angeles, the company's purpose is to develop 8000-horse-power by diversion of the waters of the Verde, the power to be transmitted electrically to Prescott and to the near-by mines. All necessary rights of way have been granted the company by the Interior Department.

L. M. Holden, aged 72, Justice of the Peace at Camp Verde and owner of valuable mining property, walked over the bank of a deep creek bed in the night and sustained injuries from which he died within a few hours.

Chris. Jergensen, an old-timer in Northern Arizona, is believed to have perished in the cold in some side caffon near Caffon Diablo. His wagon and horses have been found where he made camp, but the owner has not materialized. MAY REBUILD SMELTER.

A Corner's jury found that he came to his death from causes unknown.

The story of the stealing of the red-hot stove has a companion in one from the Agua Fria district, below Prescott, Some scoundrels stole the cylinder-head from the hoisting engine of the Yava-d pai Gold and Copper Mining Company. The cylinder at the time was so hot that the thieves had to use quantities of cotton waste in handling it and had to cool it in water before taking it away.
